

Simply put, allowing more and more media channels to be owned by fewer and fewer entities will be bad for the basic American principle of an informed democracy. Please do not allow the consolidation of our media.